Risk and reward profile

This indicator is based on the historic volatility calculated from weekly performances of this Share Class over the last five years.

This Share Class is classified in category 5 because the Sub-Fund mainly invests its net assets in equity securities (including common stocks, convertible bonds and warrants on equity securities as well as American Deposit Receipts and Global Deposit Receipts) in the USA

Further risks that are essential for the Sub-Fund are not adequately covered by the indicator above: since the Sub-Fund may invest in convertibles bonds; it is therefore exposed to credit risk linked to securities held by the Sub-Fund in case of an issuer's downgrading or default.

Furthermore, the value of your investment may fall as well as rise and you may get back less than you originally invested.

The historical data used for calculating the risk and profit category cannot serve as a reliable indicator of the future risk profile.

The risk and reward category shown above is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may change over time.

The lowest risk category does not mean a free-risk investment.

There is no capital guarantee and no capital protection.

You can find further information concerning the risk and reward profile on the SICAV's prospectus available at OFI LUX or on the Internet site of the Principal Distributor at www.ofilux.lu.

As a wholly owned subsidiary of OFI Asset Management, the Management Company applies the remuneration policy of OFI Group. The policy establishes an appropriate balance between the fixed and the variable components of the global remuneration and is based on a number of qualitative and quantitative criteria, applied differently for risk takers, senior management and control functions. The assessment of performance is set in a multi-year framework appropriate to the holding period recommended to the investors of the UCITS funds managed by the Management Company in order to ensure that the assessment process is based on longer-term performance of the Company and its investment risks and that the actual payment of performance-based components of remuneration is spread over the same period. The Group's remuneration policy has been established by the Group's strategic committee which is composed by representatives of the Group's shareholders. It is in charge of the definition and the implementation of the remuneration policy. The details of the up-to-date Remuneration Policy, including but not limited to, a description of how remuneration and benefits are calculated, are available at http://www.ofilux.lu/pdf/remuneration_policy.pdf and a paper copy will be available free of charge upon request from the registered office of the Management Company.
